School Administrative and Support Staff Recognition Week

Next week is School Administrative and Support Staff Recognition Week in NSW public schools. It's a chance to honour the contribution to children of the support staff that do administrative and support work in school offices, classrooms, libraries and school grounds.

They keep our schools ticking over, just as the theme of this year's SAS Recognition Week – Stepping up to the Challenge – suggests. Thank you Mrs Tyrrell, Mrs Young and Mr Daniels.

Zone Field & Track Carnival

Due to the extreme weather yesterday the Zone Field Carnival was cancelled yet again. The field shot put for jnr boys and jnr girls and 11 year boys and girls will be held at Greenway Oval at 1:30pm on Tuesday 2nd September. The track carnival will be run on Wednesday 3rd September commencing at 8:30am as per previously stated. The field events such as long jump, high jump and 800 metres (timed heats- no finals) will also be run on Wednesday 3rd September. Please note that there is a strong possibility the carnival will not finish within school hours. A new permission note and program will be sent home today to the children involved with these events.

Father’s Day Stall

The Father’s Day stall will be held next Thursday, 4th September in the hall to celebrate Father’s Day. The Fundraising Committee has organised fantastic gifts for Dad this year at $5. There will also be some gifts for Grandfathers. Remember to bring a plastic bag to hide your gifts in.

Country Fair... Sunday 14th September

Guessing Competition

Keep bringing in your raffle tickets, only two weeks weeks to go.

Plant Mufti

Sorry, but we have now changed our Mufti day to Thursday 11th September instead of Friday, which was stated in last week’s Bulletin. This change has occurred due to PSSA sport on Friday.

Mufti Day... Thursday 11th September

Fine for coming out-of-uniform... a plant

No Assembly Friday

Due to the Country Fair set up occurring on Friday 12th September, there will be no Silver and Gold Assembly on that date. Instead the Silver/ Gold and Maths Assembly will be held on Friday 5th September. Sorry for any inconvenience.

Stranger Danger...

It has come to our attention that there was an incident on Galston Road near Carters Road Dural on Thursday 14th August. A 10 year old boy was approached by a man wearing a black hoodie. The man parked his large white van 15 metres away and walked back to ask the boy if he needed help crossing the road. The boy replied that he didn’t need any help and said he was waiting for his mum.

The man walked back to his van and drove away. The family reported this incident to the police.

Last Wednesday it happened again to another boy in the same area. The large white van stopped but when the other boy ran off to his brother, the van drove off.

Glenorie Dads did it for Oxfam
We did it! At 8.23pm on Saturday Terry, Michael and Steve finished the Sydney Oxfam Trail walker 2014. We lost our mate Andrew at St Ives after he’d bravely battled with an injury before finally succumbing having done almost 60ks and easily the hardest part of the Track. But we were united again in celebration once we’d crossed the line. Our wives and kids surprised us 5ks from the end just past the Spit Bridge by forming a victory arch with cheers and balloons. It felt a bit like a mirage - it would have been easy to stop then and knock the top off that first beer but on we went with Terry charging up the hill to Mosman and Michael and I slip-streaming. We took 35 hours and 23 minutes - a long way over our estimate but pretty good considering the awful conditions. Much of the trail was underwater requiring various cunning plans courtesy of Mike and Terry on the last day to get us across some overflowing creeks. Was it harder than Kokoda - yes, we think it was!! Will we do it again next year - no we won’t - it’s time to step up to the two-wheelers!! But for now we are enjoying the post Oxfam glow. Thank- you to our wonderful wives and support crew who were truly amazing - Lisa, Belinda, Nicole, Catherine, Ken, Kit, James and of course Chloe, Jye, Toby, Evi, Mia, Grace, Kate, Emma and Zoe. And a very big THANK YOU to all of you out there who sponsored us and gave us so much invaluable encouragement before and all through the event. It mad a massive difference to our spirits and we know that the money raised will make a huge difference to the lives of those much less fortunate than us. Ciao for now from the Glenorie Dads........until next year!!!!!

Write On

Congratulations to the three Glenorie students that entered the Board of Studies ‘Write On’ competition. Joshua Lawton, Justin Lin and Audrey Lin all composed fabulous, engaging narratives using this picture as inspiration. Over the next few weeks their writing pieces will be published in our school newsletter for your enjoyment.

Escape!

Not very long ago in a little black and orange cottage lived an evil woman named Caoba. She was sinister and heartless. She owned twenty-four mice that she called “horror mice”, so named because they were barbaric, nightmarish and had glittering emerald eyes.

Maich was a kind woman who had a sweet little boy. Caoba wanted to ruin Maich’s life. So Caoba sent the horror mice to bring the baby to her. Maich did her best in saving the child but the mice stole the baby in the end.

Maich was sad and heartbroken! She decided to name the baby Dan, after her favorite light bulb company.

Many years later…..

The boy looked at the evening sky and shrugged. He just found out he had lost his home because an evil woman took him to the enchanted forest Cyde.

A tear rolled down his rosy pink cheeks, which soon turned as pale as the clouds in the sky.

Suddenly a green bowl containing blue goo the size of a television appeared behind him. It was the portal Indina, the only portal that could help him escape the forest Cyde! Someone had summoned the portal to save him!

His instincts told him to jump into the portal. Instantly the magic took him to a little black and orange cottage with lots of tools such as humongous chainsaws, monster hammers, tiny screws, gold and silver locks and brightly coloured light bulbs.

Excitedly he looked around the cottage to see if any tools would help bring him home.

Suddenly there was a low growling sound coming from thin air. The boy froze. He looked around just in time to see an orange blur come zipping straight towards him!

Instantly he fell backwards as the monster came crashing into him! Just then a cold voice rattled the cottage and the creature scrambled away. He remembered that cold voice. It was the evil woman!

Quickly he grabbed a pair of black binoculars from a shelf and fled the terrible place.

Outside the cottage the boy found the portal that led him to the cottage. In a split second he leaped into the portal and was gone.

Before he knew it he was on a familiar cliff, the black binoculars still in his hand. Peering through the glass, he could see so many semi-familiar houses that he couldn’t quite seem to remember.

Following his instincts, the boy crept down a crunchy, sand path, then followed the path all the way to a baby blue house. He noticed that all the lampposts had a poster of a little baby, with the words: “Come back Dan!”

Suddenly the door of the baby blue house opened, and a woman stepped out. When she saw him, she cried out: “Dan!”

The woman brought the puzzled boy into the house and told him his story. Now Dan knew that he belonged with this woman. It was an adventure he would never forget.

Dear Principal,

I write to advise you that Hillsbus has amended the school bus timetable for your School, which will commence Monday 1st September 2014.

The amended timetable shows Route 3157 @ 8.55am now operating only via Old Northern to school not via Timaru & Tocoma.

We would appreciate it if this information can be distributed to the affected students this week. Your assistance in ensuring that students receive the new timetable is greatly appreciated.

Should you have any questions regarding the timetable, you can call our Customer Service Department on 8889 7000 or visit our web site at www.cdt.com.au for up to date details of all school special services.

Kind Regards,

3 ‘No-No’s when you are selling...

Selling a property is a business transaction!
Consider these aspects...

Clutter
If your property is for sale, you usually need to do a little more than a quick spruce. Declutter strategically and systematically, starting with those areas that will interest most buyers when they inspect your home, and the areas they’ll do most of their living in. A pro can look at your clutter objectively and take quick, decisive action to remove the excess and store the rest out of sight.

Dirt
Your home should shine as much as it possibly can. Buyers will turn off if they’re inundated with dust, dirt or other muck. Thoroughly clean the entire property. You can’t really overdo cleaning when it comes to selling, properties that just look neat and acceptable might not be enough, especially if you’re commanding top dollars.

Smells
Smells can have a big impact. Setting up your place for sale can involve creating a set of inviting smells, but it should also involve getting rid of the unappealing ones. Top of buyers turn-off lists are pet smells. Other smell turn offs are cigarette smoke, mustiness, food and overpowering perfumes or incense.
